The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Campus Cure Possible

One of our regular correspondents, Dr. Robert Burns, a local veterinarian, submitted a cartoon of a young hippie couple talking it over on a campus.

The caption read:

"I'll run over and pick up my unemployment check and then drop off at the University to see what's holding up my check on the Federal education grant and also look into my research grant check. You go to the free VD clinic and check your tests — then pick up our food stamps for the month and then get my glasses at the free health center. We'll meet at the Federal Building at 12:00 for a mass picketing of the stinking Establishment."

Pretty far-fetched? Well, wait a minute!

Recently, a UCSD student, Leonard Bourin, checked out a University vehicle and drove himself and a buddy to Los Angeles on what has been described as official University business. His assignment — to bring back a list of communications supplies such as video cameras, batteries, and related materials from Los Angeles dealers. Bourin became involved in a Chicano riot and was arrested for slashing the tires of a radio news car. He was jailed for two days and a UCSD motor pool mechanic had to be driven to L.A. to bring the car back to San Diego while Bourin was resting in jail.

UCSD operates 151 vehicles on tax money so Bourin's mileage becomes interesting. His car, when it came back non-stop from L.A. had 602 miles on it. A round trip from S.D. to L.A. should be no more than 230 miles. Allowing another 30 miles for visiting stores in L.A. there is a missing 322 miles — more than twice as much as it should have been.

Dan McKinnon, president of KSON radio, who recently did a study on UCSD's auto/gasoline use reported that UCSD's motor pool vehicles travel more than 1 1/2 million miles annually. He found that UCSD's gasoline bill is $2,200 monthly with students filing no advance itinerary but they do give "details" on their return, it was reported.

But looking just at the "unauthorized" mileage the cost becomes rather disturbing — especially when viewed in the light of other financial needs existing in fields of learning.

Figure $4 a day, or $616 for 154 UCSD cars and if each of them were used in the same ratio as Bourin's car, the arithmetic would be 154 cars times 370 excess miles times 8 cents a mile. That's about $5,000 a day for "official business" that might be better used for educating students.

Because of this and other irregular practices in our institutions of higher learning, Assemblyman John Stull has introduced bills that would revise California's "archaic" tenure laws which make it virtually impossible to fire professors who are involved in capricious operational or instructional practices.

Secondly, he has a bill aimed at determining whether financial assistance should be denied students involved in campus disturbances and supporting illicit practices.

There is no question but that those who comprise the tax-paying public are growing tired of supporting young tyrants and rabble-rousing professors. They are growing tired of supplying aid for all the kook programs students demand — these demands being the backwash of weird philosophy often espoused by their teachers. Both President Nixon and Governor Reagan have been urging reform in the aid programs — an urging pushed for years by working taxpayers.

We believe students are no more up-tight than those who a couple of generations ago were satisfied with goldfish swallowing, telephone booth occupancy and co-eds' panty stealing. If young bucks then had the mature leadership of violence-oriented professors, they too, might have been goaded into burning school and bank buildings, throwing rocks at police, rioting and other lawbreaking.

Without kook professors to urge them on, students might now be satisfied with less harmful considerations as dropping melons from towers to measure the splash quotient, or selling hammer blows at two-bits apiece on an outmoded automobile.

Let him who argues where the blame should be tell us who, other than the professors, fostered violence as a philosophy. The solution to most of the campus problems is to return authority to those who should have it by permitting them to kick off campus those teachers who are weirdos.

This would almost immediately stop much of the violence which erupts from any cause and it would otherwise reduce demands for entrance-to-graduation aid for such students who would be better off performing in the manly art of digging ditches instead of disrupting classes and participating in violence which is depriving serious students of their rights.

We hold that for every uprising on campus there can be found a professional masterminding it. When the mastermind is not a college employee at the professorial level, he may be a professional trouble-maker encouraged by members of the faculty. Faculty may do this with impunity because of tenure. With many teachers, this activity is a test tube. They are able to observe what the result of these illegal confrontations is. This is a stupidly high price to have to pay for providing experience for a teacher.

Someone should remind these guys that the result of a breakdown in respect for civil law has been proved in many countries of the globe where now the only law is that of a dictator.

And that dictator lays the law on professors, students and citizens alike — with uprisings ruled out.

Dr. Amorita Treganza Heads Vision College

Dr. Amorita Treganza, of 7898 Broadway, a Lemon Grove optometrist, has been elected president of the college of Optometric Vision Development.

The national college was formed by the unification of the National Optometric Society for Developmental Vision Society; the National Society for Vision and Perception Training; and the Southwest Developmental Vision Society. The unification in February followed a decision reached by the three groups in San Antonio late last year.

Dr. Treganza, a life-long Lemon Grove resident, has been a practicing doctor of optometry for 27 years. In 1963 she was selected as San Diego's "Woman of the Year".

The college was formed, she said, with seven primary purposes. (1) Providing patients with the best possible vision through optometric vision development care; (2) Bringing together optometrists who

IN THE BEGINNING — With the Broadway improvement close at hand, it was Tony Sonka who supplied this picture of the town's first major improvement. In this picture, taken Dec. 2, 1946, are a group of unidentified early day citizens who took to rake and shovel to participate in the plaza improvement chore.

Sonka, with George White, who died in 1949, supplied the impetus and a good start it was. The men got the plaza cleaned up and later turned the task over to the Business Women's League and they still tend it. Mildred Huebsch heads the women's group presently.

At the time of the picture there was only one retail shop and that was Sonka's General Store. Imperial ave., right, was then a two lane street. In the background can be seen the old lumber yard tower. White was first president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce after it was re-activated following WWII. He was also the first Justice of the Peace here. He was known as an "organizer" according to his daughter Elza Troxell who lives nearby. A. F. "Tony" Sonka who is still "Lemon Grove's First Citizen" applied a lot of help from "behind the scenes" as he does even yet.

The plaza has since been beautified by the planting of grass, shrubs, trees; the addition of attractive flagpoles and the landmark giant lemon which proudly announces on a sign that this is "the best climate on earth."

Trustees Award Mobile Van Bid, Hear Reports On Subdivisions

The Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees met Monday night and accepted reports on free and reduced price lunches, adopted a resolution regarding Cable TV, awarded a mobile van bid, and heard reports on the Angelus Heights subdivision.

The district had been requested by the County Superintendent to adopt a resolution to the County Board of Supervisors, the City of La Mesa, and the City of San Diego, urging them to obtain channel reservations for educational television when franchises are being negotiated for cable television.

The trustees awarded the bid for a mobile van to house instrumental music students to the Rolling Homes company, which turned in the lower of two bids received.

Sixteen bid forms were mailed to prospective bidders prior to the March 4 date when bidding was opened, but only two firms responded with bona fide bids.

Trustees noted that the bid complied with specifications set by the district, and that it was a good price for the product. Trustees voted to accept the mobile van on a cash basis rather than a two-year lease.

Byrd Builders Win Grossmont Gardens Job

The William Byrd Construction Co., 7303 Broadway in Lemon Grove, was named recently to add 77 units to the existing 167 unit Grossmont Gardens complex in La Mesa.

Another Lemon Grove man, William Wilkinson, AIA, of Larwood ave., designed the facility that will cost more than a million dollars when the current expansion is complete.

Grossmont Gardens houses 185 residents and provides meals, transportation, recreation, social activities and nursing care on a 24-hour a day basis.

The addition of the new wing will make Grossmont Gardens one of the largest privately owned facilities on the West Coast, William Byrd, the builder said.

It is situated on more than 9 acres of garden-landscaped ground at 5480 Marengo.

purchase, as a savings of $1,300 was made.

The mobile van, which is to be delivered by June 4, will be used as a classroom for the instrumental music students at each school, and can be moved from school to school with reasonable ease.

A major part of the short meeting consisted of discussion of the Angelus Heights Subdivision report.

It was brought out in discussions that the Pacific Bay Development Corporation, developers of the subdivision, had made several improvements over earlier plans when they presented a plan to Paul Reynolds and Bryon Netzel, of the district at a meeting March 3.

The revised plans include better access to the school site for both pedestrian and vehicular traffic, and a choice site for the school, consisting of 10 acres.

Also, the number of units planned for the development was reduced to 600, down from 1,600 in earlier plans.

Trustees agreed that the re-

Sporting Goods Store Burglarized Mar. 3

Stanley Andrews Sporting Goods, 6941 Federal Blvd., Lemon Grove, was the victim of a $2,207.59 burglary March 3 at 9:20 p.m.

Sheriff's deputies responded to a silent burglar alarm at the business approximately two minutes after the crime had been committed but no suspects were in the store when deputies arrived.

According to reports, the suspect smashed a 16"x6" window in the front door to make entry, smashed a display case window and made off with 28 handguns.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department answered four fire calls for the week of March 1-8.

On March 1 at 5:31 p.m., two units, comprising 13 men, were sent to 7147 University, to cooperate with the State Division of Forestry in an upholstery company fire, which caused about $80,000 damage. Cause of the fire was not determined.

March 4, at 6:46 p.m., and firemen were called to 1617 Cameron, where a youth had been washing bicycle parts in gasoline, which ignited, causing about $50 damage.

March 5, at 7:31 p.m., a car accident at Golden and Imperial caused a gasoline spill on the street, which was washed off by the Fire Department.

March 7, at 7:31 p.m., lint collecting on top of a dryer in a U-Wash at 2605 Imperial, caused slight damage to the dryer.

Monterey Heights PRD Rejected By Commission

The County Planning Commission turned down a Planned Residential Development request Friday after the developers altered plans from 96 units to 64 — all of which would have been contained in four-plexes on an eight acre tract at the north end of Drexel drive 350 feet north of its intersection with Canton dr.

Interestingly, the Planning Department had asked for the alteration — and got it, and approved the new plans, only to have the Special Use Permit denied by the Planning Commission. The Permit had been requested by Macey L. McMillan, a developer.

The Commission indicated Friday that it was concerned with the traffic circulation pattern and the pedestrian walkways within the development. County engineers had said earlier that Blossom lane, leading from Mt. Miguel High school to the west side of the development would eventually become a four-lane collector road. Blossom feeds into the developer's private road in the proposed present plans and the Commission based its rejection partly on that consideration.

The development, already reduced from 96 to 64 units as four-plexes, could be built as duplexes, Ben Grame, associate planner said Tuesday.

Under R-2 zoning and building duplexes on 6,000 square feet, 72 units could be constructed, he said, giving a higher density than in the plans rejected Friday.

Lemon Grove Man Freed After Trial

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A young Lemon Grove man was found not guilty in superior court last Wed. of two charges of the sale of heroin to the undercover agents.

The not guilty ruling was handed down for David P. Dawson, 20, of 1525 Koe st., Lemon Grove, by Judge Roger S. Ruffin, who found the police methods used to promote the sale of which the young man was accused, were improper.

The trial was held before Judge Ruffin without a jury and the judge on Thursday dismissed a third heroin sale charge on Dawson.

At the beginning of the trial on March 1 a co-defendant Edward P. Murphy, 30, of San Diego, changed his not guilty plea and pleaded guilty to "possession for sale" of heroin. He is to appear before Judge Ruffin for sentencing March 23.

A third defendant, Gregory Lawrence Lutach, 20, of San Diego, is to go on trial in the same case April 20.

All three were indicted together by the grand jury on January 6 after investigation of drug sales in the Lemon Grove area in October and Nov. when the three were accused of making sales to undercover agents.

"They have been at liberty on bail or on their own recognizance since their arrest in January."

Dinner Dance Set Saturday

The Lemon Grove Lionesses have planned a buffet dinner-dance for Saturday in the VFW Hall in Lemon Grove. The affair will follow a St. Patrick's Day theme.

Cocktails will be served from 7-8 p.m., and dinner will start at 8 p.m., with dancing to follow immediately. All members of local service clubs are invited to attend.

For further information, call 461-2091.

the Commission's decision to the County Board of Supervisors within 11 days, Grame said. He did not know whether such an appeal was in the works or not.

Following the Commission's rejection of the altered plans, Dr. Harry Sorteberg, who had been a spokesman for a large group of dissenters attending the hearings, commended the Commission on its action. The group had claimed the development would adversely affect the value of the property in that area and would have created a congested traffic condition. The group also complained about the possibility of overcrowded schools and resultant overburdened taxpayers.

Dr. Sorteberg said the protest was a community project and a great many residents participated. He listed some of those who took an active part.

These included: Messrs. Pat Carlton, Mick Seyboth, Dominic Recchia and Paul Robeson. Also Mmes. James Moss and Ed Bellows

Dr. Sorteberg did not discuss what position the group would take if the developer appealed to the Supervisors.

New Attractions Planned For Old Time Days Parade

Some new departures aimed at attracting more people to participate in the Old Time Days Parade on May 22 were approved last week at the OTD Committee meeting.

Chairman Jim Dorman agreed that there should be five unit sections in theme and one for non-theme entries. Some of the names attached to sections are Marshal's, Queen's, and Chamber of Commerce. Other names will be chosen later. Overall theme is Bygone Days.

A golf tourney will be sponsored by the Horseshoe Tavern.

The tourney will be at the Bonita Golf Club on May 23. Entry fee, $12, pays for green fee, alcoholic beverages, and food. Danny Cornman, of Horseshoe, said Charger stars Lance Alworth, Walt Sweeney and John Hadl would play. A list of trophies and door prizes will be made when all of them are acquired. Proceeds of the tourney will be donated to the Old Time Days Association, Cornman said.

A local clown unit, previously announced, will also be new this year.

Parade Chairman Bob Mastney said parade applications are being received at a rate that would indicate more entries this year. The parade will start at 10 a.m. as it has in the past. Art Way, a radio personality, will be marshal.

Local merchants are stockpiling merchandise they plan to put on sale during the May 20, 21, 22 Old Time Days event.

Meanwhile, a kick-off banquet will be held May 8 at the L.G. VFW Hall. Tickets will soon be available for this event, Dorman said.

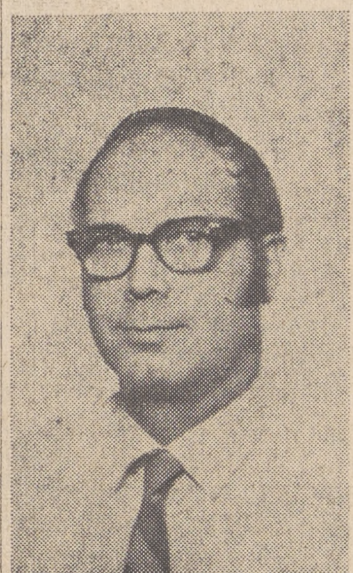

In addition to Mastney and Dorman, other top officers of Old Time Days are Al Woods, vice chairman, Don McCray, assistant parade chairman, and Joyce Foss, chamber secretary who is also OTD secretary.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Kinship terms in the Spanish-speaking environment are most interesting. Terms like "papa" (father) and "mama" (mother) are easily understood. "Tio" (uncle) and "tia" (aunt) are not phonetically related to their equivalents in English. Brothers and sisters of one's parents are affectionately referred to by using their first name as in "tio Juan" (uncle John) and "tia Maria" (aunt Mary).

Conversely one's "tio" and "tia" would refer to their nephews as "sobrino" (male nephew) and "sobrina" (female nephew). By adding "s" to the masculine form, the plural "tios" is constructed. "Tios" (even though masculine in form) may identify both aunt and uncle at the same time. Thus one may say

"Son mis tios" to imply "They are my aunt and uncle." The same concept applies to "sobrinos." One may say "Son mis sobrinos" which can mean "They are my nieces and nephews."

There is some slight similarity between "esposo" and the related English equivalent "spouse." Literally "esposo" means "husband." Simply by changing the final "o" to "a" we may construct "esposa" for "wife." The masculine plural form, "esposos" (spouses), is used to indicate "husband and wife." This may be seen in the expression "Son esposos" which means "they are spouses" or "they are husband and wife."

Offspring are referred to as "hijos" and pronounced "EE-hohs." If the offspring is female, she will be an "hija" (EE-hah) for "daughter." The masculine plural term "hijos" may identify a combination of "sons and daughters." A person having three daughters and one son may express "Tengo cuatro hijos" which can mean "I have four sons and daughters," or "I have four offspring."

Learn some Spanish kinship terms in the following phrases. If you wish to be guided by the correct pronunciation of each phrase, dial 276-2762 on your telephone and the recorded voice will say the sentences.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

OTHER PHRASES: Say "Son hermanos?" (sohn ehr-MAH-nohs) for "Are they brother and sister?" Say "Son esposos." (sohn eh-SPOH-sohs) for "They are husband and wife."

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) Why are there so many tax tables in the 1040 instruction book?

A) More tax tables were needed this year because they were extended to cover taxpayers with incomes up to $10,000. Previously, tables were only provided for incomes up to $5,000.

This change will make it possible for millions of additional taxpayers to figure their tax due just by looking at a tax table rather than having to make a percentage calculation. Besides being convenient, the tables should also help reduce the number of errors in arithmetic.

Q) If I move before my refund comes, will it be forwarded to me?

A) Yes, if you have notified your postmaster of your new address. Failure to provide a forwarding address delayed the delivery of many refunds last year.

Q) When you reach 65, can't you deduct all of your medical expenses?

A) No, only those expenses that exceed 3 per cent of adjusted gross income can be de-deducted if you itemize. This applies to all taxpayers, regardless of age.

Note that one-half, up to $150, of the premiums paid for medical insurance may be deducted without regard to the 3 per cent rule. Medicare premiums may be included.

Q) I will pay some tax on my 1970 return because my tax withholding was not enough. If I increase my withholding for 1971 can I avoid filing a declaration of estimated tax?

A) Yes, if your withholding will leave you with a balance of tax due of less than $40 when you file your 1971 return then you will not be required to file a declaration of estimated tax. The purpose of the estimated tax system is to enable all taxpayers to pay their taxes on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Q) How long should I keep the records I used for my 1970 return?

A) Tax records must be retained as long as they are needed to administer any Federal tax law. In general they should be kept at least three years after the due date of the return. Some records, however, such as those relating to the purchase of stock or a residence should be kept longer because they will be needed for your tax return when the asset is sold or exchanged.

Q) Last year, I had income from some free lance work I did, as well as from my regular job. Do I have to pay both social security and self-employment tax?

A) The maximum earnings subject to these taxes in 1970 is $7,800. If the wages from your regular job amounted to that much you won't have to pay any self-employment tax. Use Schedule SE to compute your liability, if any, for self-employment tax.

Q) How does the dividend exclusion work?

A) The law provides that you do not have to pay tax on the first $100 in ordinary dividends. Any dividend is an ordinary dividend unless the paying corporation indicates otherwise. If the stock is owned jointly by husband and wife, then $200 in ordinary dividends may be received tax free on a joint return.

Q) I made a charitable contribution in December, but the check wasn't cashed until January. Can I deduct this on my 1970 return?

A) Yes, you may take the deduction for the year the check was mailed as long as you had sufficient funds in your account to cover the check.

Unemployment Rate Takes Dip

California's unemployment rate in February experienced its largest single drop since 1968, Gilbert L. Sheffield, director of the State Department of Human Resources Development, disclosed.

Sheffield, who issued the monthly state employment and unemployment statistics, said the unemployment rate for February was 6.7 percent, down three points from the 7.0 percent January rate.

He explained, however, the unemployment survey period covered an unusually long spell of dry weather for the season and this resulted in construction being higher than expected.

And for the first time, Sheffield said, February included a four-day holiday, which may have had a temporary effect on the number reporting as unemployed.

Mount Miguel Students Learning Chemistry Through Unique Course

Mount Miguel High School chemistry teacher Pearl Prime has written a chemistry course for applied arts students at the school, the first such course offered in the Grossmont Union High School District.

Chemistry, which as long been offered as a course for students in the college preparatory program, is now offered to any student at the school with a grade point average of 2.0 or better.

The class, Chemistry 1A, is naturally different from other chemistry courses offered in the district, as it must meet the needs of students who plan on a career which will not call for a college education.

The course is directed to the students' participating in actual experiments and their learning skills and techniques rather than toward theories.

The course line calls for students to spend only about 2 1/2 weeks in their seats, according to Mrs. Prime. The rest of the time students are engaged in active experimentation.

Other learning methods used in the course include field trips. Students recently visited the Helix Irrigation District and the Rohr District, where chemical use is a major part of operations.

Another trip to the Rohr District is planned soon.

The course, an experimental one, will probably be offered again next year, depending on whether or not funds are available for the necessary equipment.

The Grossmont District, which has scheduled a bond election for October of this year, to raise funds for buildings and expansion of existing facilities, has heard a report from a citizen's advisory committee urging increased vocational programs, such as Mrs. Prime's course offers.

The class provides an excellent opportunity, according to Mrs. Prime, for the necessary background for students to become chemistry assistants or lab technicians.

In the course, students follow methods and get results that are the same as accomplished chemists, according to Mrs. Prime. And, she adds, "the kids like it."

The course started when the Grossmont District offered funds for teachers to get involved in planning courses.

Mt. Miguel Plans Evening Of Contemporary Music

The Mount Miguel High School vocal and instrumental music departments will combine talents March 20 when "Pops '71", an evening of contemporary music is staged in the school gymnasium at 8 p.m.

Appearing from the vocal music department will be the Mixed Ensemble, the Girls Glee, the Men's Quartet, and the Concert Choir. The instrumental department will be represented by the Mt. Miguel stage band, under the direction of Gene Corporon. All the vocal groups will be directed by Carl Thompson.

Among the selections scheduled for the affair are "Close to You", by the Ensemble, "Going Out of My Head," and "Message to Michael," by the Glee Club, and "Lullabye of Birdland", by the Concert Choir. The Men's Quartet will present several "old favorites."

Several of the numbers on tap for the evening will include accompaniment from the stage band, which will also offer six separate instrumental numbers.

Also planned for the evening is a drawing for door prizes.

Carl Thompson, who heads the vocal music department, said the "concert will prove to be fantastic." He added that the Concert Choir will go on a brief tour starting March 24. Stops on the tour include the Orange Coast Jazz Festival, Knott's Berry Farm, Disneyland, and several high schools in the Los Angeles area. The stage band will be accompanying the group on the tour, which will end March 28.

Donations of $1 per person will be accepted at the door on the evening of the performance.

'1000 Voice Choir' Set March 18

Forty students from Monte Vista High School will join 960 other students from 14 high schools in San Diego County for the annual performance of the "1000 Voice Choir" March 18 at Palomar College in San Marcos.

The 40 local students in the performance were chosen earlier this year as the best in the school, drawing from the school choir, glee clubs, and ensembles.

Each of the groups from all the schools involved have been practicing music for the performance separately. The first opportunity the combined choir will have to work together will be the morning before the performance, which starts at 8 p.m.

Dr. William Hall will direct the choir, which will perform numbers ranging from Brahms to those of contemporary composer Samuel Barber. Three of Dr. Hall's own works will be performed.

Tickets for the performance are now on sale at each of the participating schools, and may be purchased at the box office at the college on the evening of the performance.

Motor Vehicle Fees Can Be Deductible

A portion of last year's California vehicle registration fee is deductible in computing state and federal income taxes.

California's Registrar of Vehicles, John L. McLaughlin, said motorists may deduct all but $11 from the 1970 fee paid on each passenger vehicle, and all but $12 on each 1970 station wagon fee. "These amounts," he said, "were strictly registration payments and not deductible."

"The balance was a two percent tax based on the value of the vehicle, collected in lieu of local property taxes and returned to cities and counties where the vehicle is kept. This 'in lieu' portion is deductible."

If the motorist paid a total of $40 he should subtract $11 from that. The remainder — $29 — is deductible.

Any sales or use tax also is deductible if new or used vehicles were purchased last year.

Michael Sells To Appear At Grossmont

Grossmont College's Office of Community Services will present lyric tenor Michael Sells in a concert at 8 p.m., March 19, in the Fine Arts Lecture Hall.

Presently working full-time on his doctorate in voice at the University of Southern California, Sells has extensive professional solo appearances in opera, oratorio and recital. He served as a tenor soloist with the Washington National Cathedral Choir under Dr. Paul Callaway.

Since moving to Southern California in 1969, he has appeared as soloist with the Santa Monica Symphony, Bakersfield Masterworks Choral, Irvine Master Choral and the San Gabriel Valley Philharmonia Choral. He is presently tenor soloist with the Hollywood Presbyterian Church Cathedral Choir under the direction of Dr. Charles C. Hirt.

Sells will perform a six-part concert opening with Three French Melodies by Henri Duparc followed by "Liederstrauss" by Hugo Wolf and Massenet's "En Ferment Les Yeux from Manon". After a short intermission he will continue with selections from "Poor Richard's Almanac" by Ross Lee Finney and Folk Songs from the British Isles arranged by Benjamin Britten.

Sells will close the concert with a Recitative and Aria from "The Rake's Progress," by Igor Stravinsky.

The public is invited to hear this outstanding young tenor who is rapidly becoming one of the most sought-after soloists in Southern California.

The price of admission is $1 with tickets available at the door.

Highlanders, Matadors, Monarchs Win Openers

The Grossmont League track and field season started Friday afternoon, with the three teams expected to be in the thick of the race piling up high scores enroute to easy wins.

Mount Miguel, picked for second place in the league, caused some heads to turn when the Matadors belted El Cajon, 89-47, in what was expected to be a close meet.

Monte Vista, earmarked for first place but the victim of a humiliating defeat earlier at the hands of Clairemont, got on the track and ran by Santana, 105½-36½ on the losers' track.

The Helix Highlanders had little trouble in dealing with Grossmont, outpointing the arch-rival Foothillers, 81-55.

With Mount Miguel's surprisingly easy win over El Cajon and Monte Vista early loss to Clairemont, the Matadors must be considered a better threat to nail down the league crown than was earlier anticipated.

Helix and El Cajon remain co-favorites to get third place, while Granite Hills, a 79-57 winner over El Capitan, must also be considered.

In Friday's action, a sweep of the 100-yard dash by Mount Miguel, sweeps in the 100 and 220 by Monte Vista, and a record-breaking triple jump by Helix High's Xavier McAfee marked the day's best performances.

At Mount Miguel, the sweep on the 100, along with efforts from three athletes who won two events and wins in both relays paced the Matadors past the visiting Braves.

Milton Johnson, who led the Matador sweep in the 100, also came up with the win in the 190-yard low hurdles. Johnson also anchored the 440-yard relay team that won handily.

John Heimaster and Mike King were the other double winners in Spring Valley, as Heimaster took top honors in the triple jump and the long jump, while King won easily in the discus and the shot put.

At Santana, Monte Vista seemed to do everything right, gaining sweeps in six events, winning first places in 14 of 16 events, and boasting three double winners.

Max Gabaldon took firsts in the 180-yard low hurdles and the pole vault, Mark Romano palled down top honors in the 100 and 220, and Gary Close won the 440 and the two-mile.

The Monarchs also won handily in the relay races.

The Helix Highlanders, not boasting many stars, put good depth to work Friday as they ran over the Grossmont Foothillers.

Helix winners included Bob Bishop, in the 880, Ed Mendoza, in the mile, Rick Shultz, in the pole vault, and Xavier McAfee, in the triple jump.

Bishop, recovering from injuries, nailed down honors in the 880 with a 2:05.5 clocking, while Mendoza had no trouble in the mile, winning in 4:29.9. Rick Shultz bettered a meet record in the pole vault, soaring 14-6 — 12 inches higher than the old mark.

McAfee was the "big gun" for the Highlanders, breaking a meet record and a school mark in the triple jump with a leap of 44-1½, and also topped the long jump with a 20-6 effort.

Local schools will take a break from league action to compare marks in the South Bay Relays Saturday morning at Sweetwater High School.

At the relays, Mike King of Mount Miguel, Rick Shultz, of Helix, and several distance runners from Monte Vista will have good chances of taking first places.

League action will resume March 19, as Monte Vista entertains El Capitan, Mount Miguel invades Grossmont, and Helix plays host to a rugged Granite Hills team.

All meets will start at 3 p.m.

Emil Karas Leaves Chargers

Emil Karas, for 11 years a player and administration staff member of the San Diego Chargers, is leaving the club to enter private business, the Chargers announced.

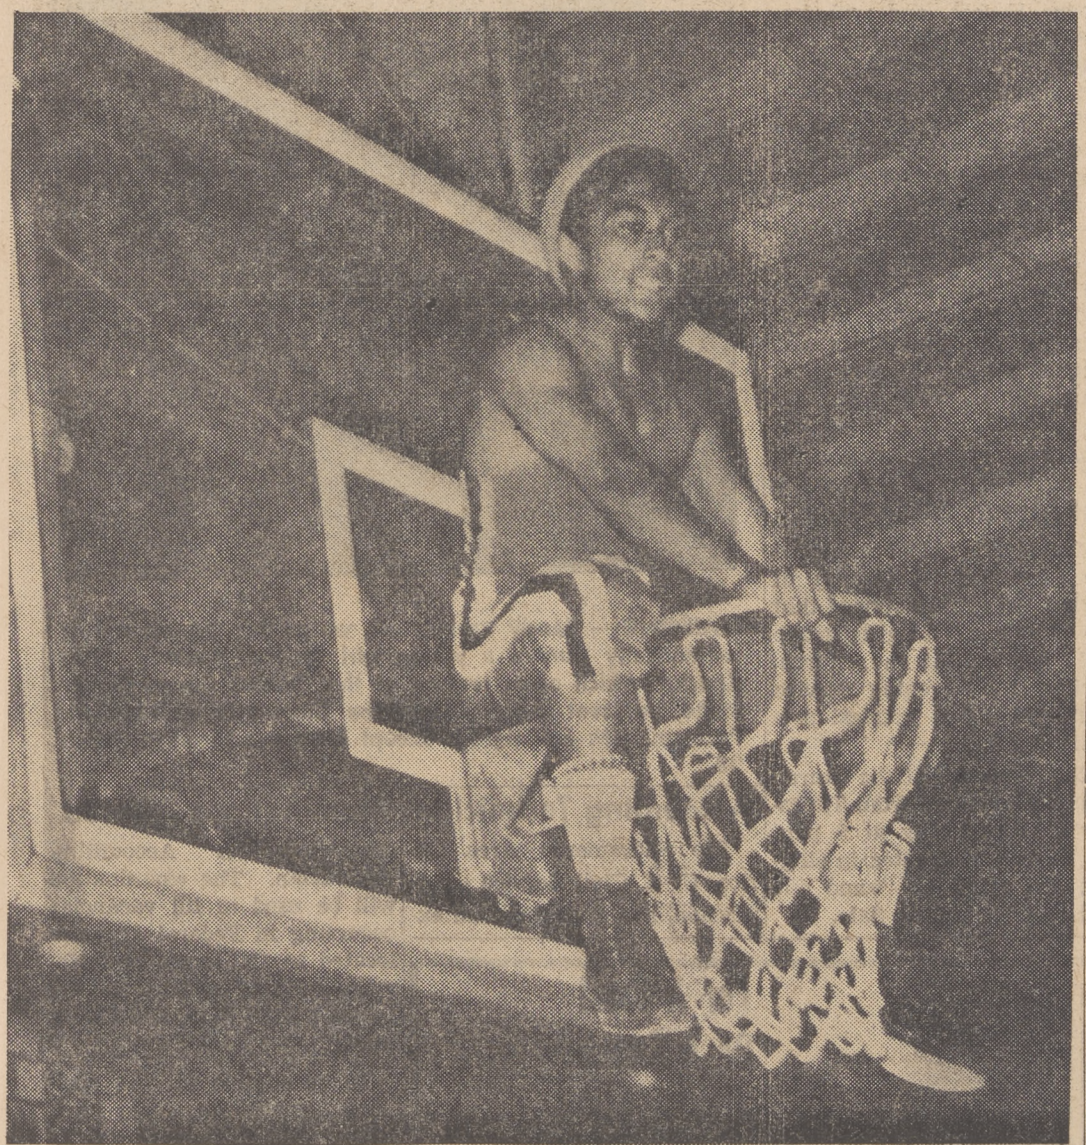

Karas will become a partner in Cover's Auto Glass Company located at 270 El Cajon Blvd., in El Cajon.

Karas said he is leaving the Chargers "with mixed emotions. I know I'm going to miss pro football, and all my friends on the Chargers who made my 11 years with the club a tremendous experience. But I am very pleased and excited about the business opportunity I have accepted."

From the University of Rayton, Karas joined the Chargers in their first year of 1960. He was a star linebacker and defensive captain until an ankle injury forced his retirement as a player. He switched to a front office position in 1967. He was in charge of ticket sales and the speakers' bureau and also served as a radio broadcaster.

Charger Executive Vice-President Sid Gillman said that "Emil will be missed. He did a great job for us and is an outstanding man. We wish him best success in his new business venture."

Karas separates from the Chargers Monday.

GOALIE — Dale Sison, of the Mount Miguel wrestling team, was one of the featured performers at the Mount Miguel student-faculty basketball game held last Friday night. Sison, in photo, decided that one easy way to keep the faculty from scoring was to keep close tabs on the basket. Faculty was held scoreless during Sison's short reign over the basket.

SHOT PUT KING — Mike King, of Mount Miguel, as he releases winning effort in the shot put in track and field meet against El Cajon last Friday. King, who is one of the country's top shot putters, tossed the lead ball 52-7 3/4, and also won the discus throw with an effort of 136-9. Mount Miguel won meet, 89-47.

Monarchs, Matadors Lose First Outings Of Baseball Season

Monte Vista and Mount Miguel had bad days Friday as both teams lost their non-league openers on the baseball field.

Chula Vista's Spartans were the culprits in the loss for Mount Miguel, as senior Bob Tagye, of Chula Vista, tossed a four-hitter, and errors hampered the Matador defense.

Monte Vista scored in the top of the first inning at Bonita Vista, but the Monarchs were unable to buy a hit after that, and lost, 8-1.

At Chula Vista, Mount Miguel was hurt in the first inning when an error allowed the first run of the game. The Matadors came up with a short rally in the second inning, but were unable to cash in two men in scoring position with one out, as the classy Spartan defense turned in a sparkling double play.

In the fourth inning, another Mount Miguel error allowed the Spartans to take a 2-0 lead. Before Matador pitcher Mike Smith could get the side out, Chula Vista led, 3-0. Mount Miguel made a game try in the top of the final inning, after Bob Gallagher belted a 410-foot home run. With two out, Mark Schuff hit a single and advanced to third base on a Texas-League single by John Earhardt. Earhardt was thrown out trying to stretch it to a double, however, ending the game.

Meanwhile, at Bonita Vista, the Barons scored twice in the bottom of the first inning to take away Monte Vista's brief lead. The Barons added another run in the second inning to make it 3-1. In the third frame, the roof fell in on Monarch starter Steve Mays, as the Barons cashed in for three more tallies.

Jerry King stepped in for the fourth inning, and held the Barons scoreless for the next two innings before allowing two runs in the sixth frame.

Bonita Vista hurler Ken Bratsch shutout the local team for five innings before taking to the showers in favor of reliever Tom Burgess, who came in the seventh, setting the Monarchs aside scoreless.

On Monday, Mount Miguel took on Bonita Vista in an eleven-inning marathon that ended up a tie, 4-4.

Bonita Vista drew first blood.

off Mount Miguel starter Bob Pennell, notching two runs in the first inning. Mount Miguel bounced back to score a run in the bottom of the first, and rallied for three tallies in the second, to lead, 4-2.

The Barons knotted the score in the top of the fourth inning, and neither team could get a run across after that.

The local teams will get back into action this week, as Mount Miguel takes on Castle Park this afternoon at Mount Miguel, and hosts the San Diego State Frosh Monday at 3 p.m. The Matadors will also face Hilltop on the Lancers' field next Wednesday.

Monte Vista plays at Hawthorne tomorrow, then plays the State Frosh team next Wednesday.

Earle, Honz Named Top League Stars

Monte Vista's Gary Earle and Helix' Mike Honz were named co-players of the year for the Grossmont League basketball season last week.

Earle, who finished second in total points and second in points-per-game average, was the leader of the CIF Champion Monarchs.

Honz, who led the league in both points scored and points-per-game average, was top scorer and playmaker for the Highlanders, who tied for second place in the Grossmont League.

Other members of the all-league team were Kevin Enright, of Grossmont, Dennis Core, of Santana, and Allen Bunting, of Monte Vista.

The second team included Bob Papeiak, of Monte Vista, and Tom Young and John Slater, of Mount Miguel.

Named for honorable mention were Jack Cross and Carl Stucky, of Monte Vista, and Mike Bruner and Tim Miller, of Mount Miguel.

The selections were made by a poll of coaches in the league.

Gulls to Host Seattle, Phoenix In Weekenders

The San Diego Gulls, unbeaten in their last six starts, play a pair of games this weekend as they attempt to nail down second place in the Western Hockey League standings.

The Gulls will meet the Seattle Totems at the Sports Arena Friday night, and the Phoenix Roadrunners will visit the Gulls on Sunday evening.

The Gulls enter this weekend with a 10 point lead over third-place Phoenix. The Roadrunners have played three less games than San Diego.

Tomorrow night's game against Seattle will be an important meeting. The Gulls are trying to solidify their hold on second place, while the Totems are locked in a struggle with the Denver Spurs for the fourth and final playoff spot.

Sunday's game against Phoenix will be another in the series of battles for second place. Sunday night will be the Gulls' final Family Night of the season, with a minor hockey game at 5 p.m. and free public skating following the Gulls-Roadrunners game.

The Gulls hold a series lead over both Seattle and Phoenix. San Diego leads Seattle, 5-2-3, and has a 6-5-2 edge over Phoenix.

San Diego has won four straight games, have a six-game unbeaten streak and have a 9-2-4 record in the last 15 games.

The Gulls took a firmer hold on second place in the WHL race with a pair of wins last week. They blanked the Denver Spurs, 3-0, on Thursday night for the team's second straight shutout win, and then beat Phoenix, 5-3, on Saturday night in the key game in the battle for second place.

Jack McCartan recorded his second straight shutout on Thursday night as Earl Heiskala scored a pair of goals. McCartan, who has started 20 straight games for the Gulls, ran his shutout streak to 17-3-1, longest shutout sequence of the season in the WHL, before he gave up a goal to Phoenix.

Under the Department's policy, mail for people living in trailer parks built since July 1, 1970 is placed in grouped receptacles or in the manager's office rather than delivered to the individual mobile home.

'U.S. Subsidizing Fishboat Piracy' Van Tells Committee

Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, charged today that the Nixon Administration has ignored a Congressional mandate for recovering the costs of fines levied illegally against San Diego fishing boats by Ecuador and Peru.

"In effect, our Government has been subsidizing piracy," Van Deerlin told a House subcommittee, at a hearing called to find out what the Government is doing to help the fishermen.

In his prepared testimony, the San Diego Congressman said the State Department has made "no effort whatever" to comply with a 1968 law which directs the Secretary of State to "take such action as he may deem appropriate" to retrieve the costs to the Government of reimbursing fishermen for the foreign fines. Countries that refused to honor such claims would lose some of their U. S. aid.

Van Deerlin gave the subcommittee documentation showing that the U. S. Treasury has reimbursed the owners of seven tuna boats for $324,193 in penalties assessed by Peru and Ecuador since the statute took effect.

"Not one penny of this amount has been recovered from the offending nations," he said. "More shocking, there has been no discernible effort by our Government even to initiate a claim."

The seven vessels were involved in nine seizures, all occurring between December, 1968, and February, 1970. In the past two months, Ecuador has made 25 additional seizures and imposed fines exceeding $1 million, also reimbursable by the Federal Government after applications are processed.

"Ecuador obviously has felt emboldened by our own inaction," Van Deerlin said. "She knows she can go on taking and fining our boats with relative impunity."

NO LIFT, BEND, OR STRETCH — Winifred Reay of 3271 Buena Vista, Lemon Grove, has 34,000 register of action cards at her fingertips. In seconds she can locate a card and tell at a glance whether or not a particular document in a case has been filed, or she can enter a document on the register card. Before these modern tub files, clerks had to work with the heavy register books in the right background. Each book holds only 500 cases; 34,000 required 68 books filling nearly 18 feet of shelf space. Innovative records techniques such as these new file cards keep filing, storage, and personnel costs down as well as make work physically easier in the Records Division of the County Clerk's office.

County Clerk's Revenue And Collection Division Is Unique

It's not the cost, it's the up-keep.

You can get a marriage license from San Diego County Clerk R. E. "Bud" James for only $6. But broken marriages, child-birth and family illness keep James' office busy collecting up to $18 million a year in family support payments and hospital bills.

"Sixteen years ago when I became County Clerk, our Revenue and Collections Division had two people and an old NCR bookkeeping machine," says James. "Now we have a hundred people, 65 of them collectors; more than 40,000 current accounts are stored in the computer; and we receive 600-750 payments a day in the mail."

The Revenue and Collections Division is a unique operation — the only one in California. The Division is collection agent on all court orders for support, institutional care and failure to provide, and for other County departments such as Welfare, Probation and Medical Institutions.

Last year, three million dollars came through the office in support money. Some of these payments were by court order; many arrangements to pay through the Clerk's office were voluntary. Payment records are stored in the computer, offering an accurate and readily available accounting.

"In collecting and processing child support payments, we're doing a real service to the community. In many cases, the mothers would be on welfare if we didn't see they receive their payments," James points out.

Collecting for Medical Institutions brought in over nine million dollars last year. When County patients can't pay for hospital or institutional care, they sign an open-end lien which applies to any real property they may own or acquire. Every title insurance policy must be checked against these records; a lien may have been signed ten years previously, but if unpaid, it will be among the 70,000 liens now on file in the Clerk's office.

"We do other collections for County departments," explains James. "Say someone runs into and damages a County Guardrail and the County Engineer can't collect — we'll do it. We can take these problems into small claims or juvenile court if necessary."

The first half of this fiscal year, the Division collected nine and a half million dollars, a sharp rise over last year, James comments. "Part of the increase is child support payments. The rate of separations has skyrocketed. Sometimes the monthly rate of dissolutions equals the number of marriage licenses issued. More men are filing, now that the new laws have lowered the high cost of leaving. And many of these dissolutions involve children and support payments." James estimates that the work of his office is about evenly divided between the Revenue and Collections Division and the court-oriented records management. The Records Division is custodian of all the records of the Superior Court as well as some unusual registries set by state statutes.

In the Records Division, all documents are processed and records kept on marriage dissolutions, probates, adoptions, suits over $5000, felonies, and juvenile cases. The County Clerk's office issues all marriage licenses, processes passport applications and fictitious name and corporate filings.

For 94 years, the fictitious name registry was kept intact; recently the Clerk was allowed to cancel early registrations. By law, all registrants had to be notified by mail. This led to some extraordinary problems since most of the old addresses — such as "Stable behind Jessop's" — as well as the registrants — were no longer there.

The handling of records is prescribed by legal codes. The Clerk must keep a register of every document. This in itself keeps five people busy. In 1970 they processed more than 374,000 documents. In five years, there has been a 60% increase in the number of documents handled; due to innovative techniques of records management, personnel has increased much more slowly.

"Record keeping offers a real challenge," James says. "There has to be constant evolution and revolution to keep documents from swamping people and bursting storage space."

THE OLD AND THE NEW — Donna Kalamaha, left, of San Diego, and Jane Allen, of 3619½ South Cordoba st., Spring Valley, show the difference between the old ways of filing documents at the County Clerk's office and modern methods. Donna shows yellowing papers from a land suit in 1896, when documents were folded and stuffed into boxes for filing. Jane demonstrates the new "dial-a-file" system, which enables modern files in plastic envelopes to be reached in a matter of minutes.

Latin American Medical Aid Aim of Local 'Amigos' Program

The Lemon Grove Rotary club was introduced Monday to the Amigos de las Americas by Myron D. Fessler, M.D., a Lemon Grove physician who is vice president of the Amigos organization.

Dr. Fessler, showing slides, said approximately 50 area youths are being trained for Latin America medical service. They will spend three weeks in villages and hamlets giving shots for polio, tetanus, diphtheria, smallpox and measles.

The youngsters, all high school students, will join about 600 others from all over the United States to assist American and national physicians; teach public health, personal hygiene, and assist in community development projects.

The program is supported solely by contributions. Selectees pay a $5 registration fee and make a $250 contribution to the project.

Two Lemon Grove candidates; Vicki Jeffries and Jerry Eubanks, both Mt. Miguel students, are in training. They attended the Rotary meeting Monday.

Candidates spend 100 hours of intensive training. In Latin America village families supply room and board.

Youngsters may obtain detailed information about Amigos de las Americas from their high schools or by writing P.O. Box 2353, La Mesa, CA 92041.

Free Racing To Benefit Cancer Research

Harness racing will make its only appearance this year in San Diego County on March 21 to benefit the American Cancer Society.

The silks and sulks will be on view starting at 1 p.m. at the Del Mar Race Track.

The Sunday afternoon event is open to the public and free of admission charge. Donations for the Cancer Society will be taken at the gate.

Drivers and horses competing in the matinee event have been in winter training at the Del Mar track and soon will scatter to cities throughout the United States for the Spring harness racing season.

Trotting horses do not run at Del Mar in regular competition, making the March 21 event the only opportunity San Diegans will have to watch the popular sport close to home.

Ernie Myers, popular KOGO disc jockey, and Charles Hinkle, Los Angeles professional racing announcer, will share the announcing honors for the benefit event.

Food, refreshments and free parking will be available.

The Cancer Society benefit is sponsored by the Solana Chamber of Commerce, the Del Mar Chamber of Commerce and Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity.

GROUNDWORK — Earthmovers and Caterpillar tractors are common sights for residents and passers by on Sweetwater Springs Blvd. in Spring Valley, where the Rancho San Diego operations are taking place. Eventually the site, adjacent to Monte Vista High School, will become part of a vast planned residential development which will include land in Spring Valley and El Cajon.
